

Cob Building Workshop

Serendipity Farm Quilcene, WA.

Organic Produce & Flowers

Horse Boarding

Rental Facilities

Workshops & Retreats

Cob Workshop at Serendipity Farm

August 8 - 12 2007

Facilitator: Elke Cole of Cobworks

Cob building, light clay straw, cob floor. Cob finishes, plasters and inlays.-
The Everything You Need to Know Workshop August 8-12
(5Days) About finishing a cob building from wall construction to plasters, to inlays, mosaics, sculpting, doors, windows, roofing.
Fun hands on training.

Surrounded by spectacular views of the Olympic Mountains, Serendipity Farm is the perfect location for a workshop. The cob workshop is continuing work on a Cob kitchen building. Previous workshops here have been fun, informative, giving participants a glimpse of farming and rural life.

The roof is up so rain or shine we will have a dry place to work this year!!!

The farm is located just north of the small town of Quilcene on the Olympic Peninsula.

Lunches and snacks are provided; If you camp you may participate in Dinner at a small extra cost.

August 8-12 Workshop Cost: $450 10% discount for couples tuition includes camping, tuition, lunches and snacks

To Register please send your registration fee with the following information: The name of the workshop, Your name, your contact information : Phone and email For more information call 360-765-0263 or email serendipityfarm@bigplanet.com
PO Box 97, Quilcene, WA 98376

